

7000 Series

Taprite is the leading manufacturer of CO2 and N2 regulators supplying the food and beverage industry. The 7000 series is a high-performance beverage regulator capable of meeting the most demanding applications in restaurants, stadiums, theaters, and high-volume draft beer systems. Regulator models are suited for fountain and beer dispense systems.

Features

- Certified and applicable to UL and SK standards
- Suitable for CO2 and N2
- Optimized pressure regulation for soda and draft beer application
- High-volume flow performance
- Low freeze up under high demand
- Outlet check valves standard
- Replaceable external safety
- Quick disconnect (John Guest) fittings fully compatible with body
- Diaphragm service kit compatible with Taprite legacy 2" models

Options

- Tank mount or wall mount
- Single body or multiple pressure configurations
- Adjustment options, including knob, set screw, or preset (tamper evident)
- Variety of outlet fittings available, including barb, flare, and push-fit
- Safety valve available in 45, 60, 105 and 130 PSI
- Gauges available with PSI and Bar
- Change-over valve (tank selector)

Taprite Inc. | sales-us@aalberts-dt.com | T. 1-800-779-8488 | www.taprite.com | www.disptek.com/taprite